

News Release
May 25, 2017

Contact: Clinton McNemee, Deputy Director of Public Works
(913) 367-5561

For Immediate Release

LIONS POOL OPENING DELAYED

Atchison, Kansas – The City is unable to open the Lions Pool on Saturday as scheduled. Recent cool air temperatures have caused the water to remain around 60 degrees, and, with the upcoming forecast, the water is not expected to surpass 70 degrees this weekend. The ideal water temperature for recreational swimming is 80+ degrees. The pool will open once the pool water temperature exceeds 70 degrees.

###